

Poet about place

The Surabaya Heroes Monument

In Surabaya's heart, Twenty meters high, its spirit strong. A silent witness Where freedom's brave heroes fought all day long.

Not just a pillar, but a memory's core, Of blood spilled fiercely on November's day. The 'Arek-Arek Suroboyo' and the war, A sacred 'place' that lights our future way.

Standing firm where history takes its rest, A timeless pride for all the land to see. The monument, forever truly blessed, The badge of courage and of liberty, Surabaya Heroes monument the symbol of heroes blood and sweat.

