

The Cat with a Heart

Sitting in front of the window, a beautiful cat lurks,
Her soft eyes full of love, heart wide open.
She needs no words, the language of love in the eyes,
Her head gently rubbed, the world feels more beautiful.
Approaching with slow steps, the cat greets,
Touching the heart with her presence, it's wonderful.
He lies on the lap, warming the soul,
The cat of the heart, faithful always beside us.
On a sunny morning or a red sunset,
He is a faithful companion, never tired.
A little cat, a creature full of charm,
Touches our hearts, in a soft and warm embrace.
